FRIENDS OF HAMILTON GALLERY

With a 50-year history of active fundraising, advocacy and engagement, The Friends of Hamilton Gallery is a valued organisation that supports the gallery in a myriad of ways.

From hosting fundraising events, acquiring works and supporting a diverse range of educational, informative, and fun activities.

The Friends host a number of cultural activities and social events designed to bring the wider community into the gallery, including talks, lunches, garden parties, gala dinners and an annual Christmas party.

Friends members also curate exhibitions, contribute to gallery public programs and are key advocates for the bright future of the New Hamilton Gallery.

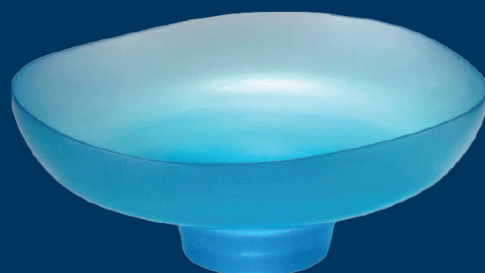

Join this vibrant, connected community and enjoy multiple benefits.
